

WAIAM Volunteer Leadership Roles

Co-Chairs (2):

Karen Arondoski & Rachel Plowman

Lead and oversee WAIAM's strategy and operations, connect WAIAM with AIAM leadership, guide volunteer leaders, and ensure alignment, continuity, and progress.

Vice Chair

Available Role

Supports the Co-Chairs, ensures progress on priorities, and oversees strategic communications and marketing to maintain alignment, visibility, and engagement.

Member Engagement Lead

Caroline McDade

Serving as the primary point of contact for new members, this role manages onboarding, engagement, and recognition to create a connected and valued WAIAM membership.

Community Event Lead (2)

Available Roles

Coordinates volunteers at both AIAM-hosted and external events, supporting social marketing, tracking feedback to maximize engagement and impact, and identifying additional opportunities for WAIAM.

Michigan Youth Future Flight Challenge Leads (2)

Lissa Barron & Available Role

Plan and execute the event, coordinate volunteers and tasks, and collaborate with partners to ensure a successful and impactful program.

She Innovates, She Leads Program Leads (2)

Angela Kimber-Ehlich & Available Role

Oversee planning, coordinate activities and volunteers, collaborate with partners, and identify opportunities to expand program visibility.